Book group to discuss 'Shadow Divers'

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – Macomb County residents and library patrons are invited to participate in the Everyone's Reading program by attending a book discussion at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 28, at the Macomb County Library.

"Shadow Divers: The Last True Adventure of Two Americans Who Risked Everything to Solve One of the Last Mysteries of World War II," by Robert Kurson, will be discussed at this session of the Macomb County Library's book discussion group.

"Shadow Divers" tells the true story of two shipwreck divers who discover a World War II U-Boat which sank 60 miles off the coast of New Jersey in 1944. It chronicles the adventures of divers John Chatterton and Richie Kohler who set out to discover the identity of the sub and its 56 crew members.

The discussion is free and open to the public, but reservations are required. For more information or reservations, call 586-286-6660.

About Macomb County

Macomb County is an enriching community in Southeastern Michigan that has one of the state's fastest rates of growth. Its 837,000 residents make it Michigan's third-largest county, with direct access to Lake St. Clair and Anchor Bay, and a host of cultural and entertainment options. Its highly skilled workforce and investment in new and expanding businesses make it open to enterprise. Active civic leadership translates into balanced budgets and Michigan's second-lowest tax rate. An increasingly diverse population and high quality of life make Macomb County accessible to all.
